Brock, Instructor, Division of Education; Miss Mary Chambers, Teaching and Laboratory Assistant, Department of Physical Sciences; Mr. Jake Diggs, Instructor, Department of Health and Physical Education; Mr. Geoffrey Pill, Instructor, Department of English and Modern Languages; Mrs. Bernice Moore, Registered Nurse; Miss Addie Morris, Housemother, and Mr. Jerome Dickens, Part-time Security Officer.

Dr. W. E. Simms, retired Langston University instructor, is convalescing from a recent illness. The University wishes Dr. Simms a very speedy and complete recovery.

As a part of the 1966-67 Fine Arts Festival, the Department of Music will present the Oklahoma University Trio in concert. This event is scheduled for Thursday, February 2, at 7:30 p.m. in the I. W. Young Auditorium.

If you have not done so, go by the Page Hall Art Gallery and see Mr. Wallace Owens' one-man Art Show. The show contains paintings, sculpture, graphics, ceramics, and jewelry--most of which were executed in Mexico.

A meeting with all juniors, who are interested in the Governor's Oklahoma Opportunity Program, will be held in the Ballroom of the Student Union Friday, February 3 at 6 p.m.

Class meetings will be held at the regular time scheduled--the first Friday in the month. Meeting date for this month is February 3 at 10 a.m.

The Basketball team will play Oklahoma Baptist University at Shawnee February 3 and Central State at Edmond on February 4. GO, LIONS, GO!

Guest speaker for Morning Meditations Sunday, February 5, will be The Reverend Dr. W. Taft Watts, Director of the Oklahoma Baptist Educational Center of Oklahoma City. Plan now to come to Meditations Sunday and hear this challenging preacher.

Sunday at the Movies will feature "Moment to Moment" and Wednesday's movie will be "A Big Hand for a Little Lady." The Sunday movie begins at 4 p.m. and the Wednesday movie at 7 p.m. in the I. W. Young Auditorium.

Teacher Recruiters will be on campus Tuesday and Wednesday. Louis Ploeg, Bureau of Indian Affairs, Albuquerque, New Mexico, is scheduled for Tuesday and James Benjamin from Winfield, Kansas, will be here Wednesday. Contact Mr. Willis Warren, Placement Officer, for further information.

-OVER-

Guest speaker for Wednesday's assembly will be Dr. F. D. Moon. Dr. Moon, well-known educator and retired principal of Douglass High School, Oklahoma City, will speak on the role of Negro people in the development of Oklahoma.

Two seminars will be held on February 8. At 1 p.m. in the Student Union Ballroom, Major William Rose, Director of the Oklahoma Commission on Human Rights, will lead a discussion on recent developments in race relations in the State. All students are invited to be present. At 4 p.m., under the auspices of the Social Science Department, President William H. Hale, will offer the first in a series of seminars for social science majors. This seminar will also be held in the Ballroom. The seminar is opened to all students, however, social science majors are particularly urged to attend.

Our President, who is in constant demand as a lecturer, speaker, and panelist, was guest speaker for the Tenth Annual Family Night Program at Meridian, sponsored by the Parents and Teachers Organization on January 27; he was panelist for the Human Relations Seminar, "Beyond the Melting Pot", held at the Mayo Hotel in Tulsa on January 18; and was guest lecturer for the Women of the St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Edmond, on the subject, "An Inside View on Racial Problems", on February 1.

Professional Faculty Meeting will be held Thursday, February 9, at 4 p.m. in Room 312, Moore Hall.

February 9 is the last day for enrollment in courses for credit.

CAMPUS ORGANIZATIONS WHO WOULD LIKE A PICTURE TO APPEAR IN THE 1967 Yearbook should schedule a time for taking the picture with Mr. E. L. Strong, Professor, Department of Technology, on or before FEBRUARY 9.

ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR THE WEEKLY "Langston Letter" should be in the office of the Dean of Academic Affairs no later than Wednesday noon. We invite you to use this media for publicizing news concerning your organization, division, or department.
